General Description

Substantial five bedroomed detached executive style house set on a deceptive corner plot with mature gardens to front, rear & side which is a secret fruit/vegetable cultivated plot. There is a substantial driveway with parking for up to four vehicles which leads to a double integral garage. The property has uPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating although there is mains gas to the property. Having been extended to the side, rear and over the garage, an internal viewing is highly recommended to appreciate what this property has to offer. Laleston is a sought after Village location to the West of Bridgend with good access out to the A48 and to Porthcawl plus routes on the M4 corridor East and West at junction 36 and junction 37. Laleston boasts Trelales Village Primary School, St David's Church is set in the heart of the Village, together with some reputable restaurants and a Village Store incorporating the Post Office. Church View is located just off Rogers Lane on the outskirts of the Village with the access adjacent to open farm land. The house was built circa 1978 and was the original Show House, there is no through traffic, just a series of cul-de-sacs. The property is an ideal family home and would easily accommodate integrating other relatives if required to co-habitate.

The property comprises: - GROUND FLOOR: - Entrance and Hallway; Downstairs Shower Room; Living Room; Dining Room; Garden Room; Sitting Room; 'L' Shaped Kitchen/Breakfast Room; Utility Room. FIRST FLOOR: - Landing; Master Bedroom with Jack & Gill En-suite; Family Bathroom; Bedroom Two and Three further bedrooms.
